The Judge was very impressed with the line ups today. Most classes were difficult to judge as there was not much between exhibits in most cases it was only a point or two. The Judge emphasised that the young ones grow and change from week to week and one that may not have placed today could win at the next show as it grows and goes through a lot of changes.

Animals were presented in very good condition and very well groomed so well done to exhibitors.

Thank you to everyone for coming and a big thank you to the stewards.
